1.2 Office. The principal office of the corporation is 360 East Palm Lane, Phoenix, Arizona 85004. Upon approval of the board of directors, the corporation may move its principal office, or establish one or more other offices in Arizona to conduct its business and provide its services.

1.3 Service Area. The service area of the corporation is the State of Arizona.

1.4 Mission. The mission of the corporation is to help cancer patients and their loved ones confront the illness and fight for recovery with the assistance of their health care providers and care givers, by providing free programs that offer educational, psychological, social and emotional support. The corporation's services include support groups, educational workshops, nutrition and exercise programs, and mind/body classes designed to enable patients to gain control, reduce isolation, and restore hope regardless of the stage of the disease.

1.5 Program. The corporation shall carry on its business and programs consistent with the provisions and guidelines of The Cancer Support Community ("CSC") under which the corporation operates as a licensed affiliate.

ARTICLE II NO MEMBERS

The corporation shall be managed by the board of directors, and shall have no voting members. All rights, powers and responsibilities of the corporation shall be vested in the board of directors, and any action under Arizona law that would otherwise require approval by members shall require only the approval of the board of directors. However, nothing in this Article II or the corporation's articles of incorporation shall be construed to limit the corporation from referring to participants, supporters and benefactors as "members" or "associates" or some other designation so long as such persons or entities are not entitled to vote on any action of the corporation merely by reason of their designation as a "member."

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

3.1 Number and Qualification. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a board of directors, consisting of not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty-five (35) persons. The number of persons serving from time to time on the board of directors shall be fixed by the board.

3.2 Powers. Subject to the limitations of the corporation's articles of incorporation and these bylaws, the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the board of directors, and the board shall have all powers which may be delegated to a board of directors of a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona.

3.3. Election and Term of Office. Except for ex-officio positions as may be designated by the board of directors, directors shall be elected for staggered three-year terms, with approximately one-third of the directors elected each year. A director's term shall commence with his or her election to the board of directors and shall terminate at the annual meeting of the board of directors that is not more than three years following the director's election. The election of a new director may be conducted, at the discretion of the chairman of the board, by e-mail ballot transmitted to all existing directors entitled to vote, in which case a majority of all directors entitled to vote is required to elect a director. The vote tally of all e-mail votes shall be recorded in the board minutes, including the names of the directors voting and the number of votes in favor of the director candidate. Directors may not serve more than a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms, provided that a director may serve for more than two terms so long as no more than two such terms are consecutive. Other than e-mail ballots, election and re-election to the board of directors requires the vote of a majority of the board at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Each elected director shall take office upon election and shall hold office until the director's term expires, or until such director's earlier resignation or removal.

3.4. Place of Meetings. All meetings of the board of directors shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, or such other place, within or without the State of Arizona, as the directors may fix or determine from time to time.

3.5. Nominations. Nominations for persons to be elected to the board of directors may be made by any board member or by the board governance committee, whose duties and responsibilities are set forth in Article VII below. Nominations may be presented for a vote at any duly held meeting of the board of directors.

3.6. Duties. The duties and responsibilities of board members shall be as established by law. Specific duties and responsibilities of board members may be adopted, in writing, by the board of directors. Failure to substantially and reasonably comply with the established duties and responsibilities of board members shall be grounds for removal from the board. Any director who shall be absent from three (3) consecutive board meetings without approval of the chairman of the board shall be contacted by the board governance committee as to the director's interest or ability to continue to serve on the board. The board shall have the power to remove a director upon a two-thirds vote of all directors.

3.7. Actions. All actions of the corporation requiring approval of the board of directors shall be taken by a majority of the board members present at a duly held meeting of the board at which a quorum is present; provided that the executive committee of the board shall have the power to act on the board's behalf when, at the discretion of the chairman of the board, action is required before a meeting of the board of directors can be duly held. Any action of the executive committee taken on the board's behalf may be ratified or overruled by the board at a duly scheduled meeting.

3.8. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the board shall be held during November of each fiscal year or on any other date designated by the chairman of the board or the directors. At the annual meeting, the board shall elect or reelect board members and the officers of the corporation, and shall transact any other business as may properly come before the meeting.

3.9. Regular or Special Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board may be called at any time by the chairman of the board, and shall be called upon the written request of three or more directors. Any item of business may be considered at any regular or special meeting of the board, provided that the chairman shall provide an agenda for each such meeting.

3.10. Notice of Meetings; Waiver. Written notice of the annual meeting and of any regular meeting of the board of directors shall be communicated to every member of the board of directors by mail, fax or e-mail at least ten (10) and not more than twenty-five (25) days in advance of the meeting, and shall set forth the time, date and location of the meeting and an agenda. Notice of any special meeting of the board of directors shall be communicated to every member by mail, fax, e-mail or telephone at least twenty-four hours in advance of the meeting, and shall set forth the time, date and location of the meeting and an agenda. Failure of an item of business to appear on an agenda shall not prevent the board of directors from considering and acting on such item at the meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

3.11. Telephonic Attendance. One or more directors may participate in a meeting of the board of directors by conference telephone, as opposed to being present in person, provided that the director notify the chairman of the board or executive director at least two hours in advance of the meeting. Attendance by conference telephone shall constitute attendance at the meeting.

3.12. Vote by Proxy. Any director who can not attend a meeting may grant by written proxy his or her vote to any other director. All such written proxies shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

3.13. Quorum. A quorum, consisting of at least forty per cent (40%) of the directors then serving, attending in person, by telephone, or by proxy, shall be required in order for the board of directors to take action. The attendance of non-voting ex officio members of the board of directors shall not be counted in determining whether a quorum is present. If a quorum is not present, the chairman of the board or other presiding officer may postpone the meeting, without adjournment, for any length of time not to exceed five days for the purpose of attaining a quorum, and notice of the postponed meeting is required to all directors including those who were not present at the meeting without a quorum.

3.14. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if written consent setting forth the action to be taken shall be signed by a majority of the directors.

3.15. Minutes. A person, who may or may not be a director, designated by the chairman of the board, shall prepare written minutes of each and every meeting of the board of directors, which minutes shall be approved (and may be amended) by the board of directors at a subsequent meeting. The minutes shall also be filed with the corporate records.

3.16. Committees; Subcommittees. The chairman of the board, with the approval of the board of directors, may from time to time designate one or more standing, special or ad hoc committees each of which shall exercise such powers as may be assigned to it by the board of directors or these bylaws. Committee membership may include persons who are not directors, provided that the committee chairman and a majority of the committee members shall also be members of the board of directors. As of the date of adoption of these Amended and Restated Bylaws, the standing committees of the board of directors are:

- Executive Committee (see Article VI below)
- Board Governance Committee (see Article VII below)
- Marketing Committee (see Article VIII below)
- Finance Committee (see Article IX below)
- Fund Development Committee (see Article X below)
- Program and Services Committee (see Article XI below)

Each committee, with the approval of the committee chairman, may establish one or more subcommittees to organize and conduct its work, provided that a majority of the members of a subcommittee shall also be members of the board of directors. The committees and subcommittees shall establish their own meeting schedule, shall prepare minutes of each such meeting, and shall report periodically to the board of directors, the chairman of the board, and the executive director. Unless specifically delegated in writing or provided otherwise in these bylaws, no committee or subcommittee other than the executive committee shall have the power to take action binding on the board of directors or the corporation. Committee representation shall be reviewed at least annually by the chairman of the board and executive director, with the purpose of assuring that the membership of each committee includes a sufficient number of persons with expertise relevant to the committee's work to perform the responsibilities of the committee.

3.17. Vacancies. Any vacancy, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by action of the directors then in office, or by a sole remaining director, and the director so elected shall serve for a term of office designated by the board.

3.18. Fees and Compensation. Directors and members of standing or special committees or subcommittees may not receive compensation for their services as directors and committee members, but may receive reimbursement for expenses as may be fixed or determined by the board. Nothing herein shall prevent a paid officer or staff member of the corporation, such as the executive director, from serving on the board of directors or on a standing or special committee or subcommittee.

3.19. Conflicts of Interest. In addition to any prohibitions provided by law or by the procedures and guidelines of TWC, no member of the board of directors or a standing or special committee or subcommittee, unless approved in writing by the board of directors, shall: (i) be favored in applying for or receiving services of the corporation; (ii) receive payment from any service provider for referral of any client to the corporation; (iii) have any direct or indirect financial interest in the assets of the corporation; (iv) provide, for remuneration, any goods or services to the corporation or otherwise be involved in business transactions with the corporation; or (v) otherwise benefit financially from acts of the corporation.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS AND STAFF

4.1 Designation. The officers of the corporation shall be a chairman of the board, a vice chairmen, a secretary, a treasurer, and an executive director, all of whom shall be elected by the board of directors. Other officers may be designated by the board. The officers shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall from time to time be determined by the board of directors. The officers' terms shall commence with their election by the board to such office and shall end with the later of the next annual meeting of the board of directors or until their successors are elected and qualified, provided that an officer may be reelected for successive annual terms. The chairman, vice chairmen, secretary and treasurer shall be members of the board of directors, and the executive director shall be an ex officio member of the board. Other officers may be, but shall not be required to be, members of the board of directors.

4.2 Election and Term of Office. The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the board of directors except in the case of an office vacancy, in which case the vacancy shall be filled by election at the next meeting of the board of directors duly held after the creation of the vacancy. The term of office for officers other than the executive director shall be one year, beginning January 1 of the corporation's fiscal year. Officers may serve more than one consecutive term. An officer shall hold office until his or her successor is elected and qualified, or until resignation or removal.

4.3 Compensation. Officers who are not also employees of the corporation shall receive no compensation for their services, but may receive reimbursement for expenses as may be fixed or determined by the board of directors.

4.4 Chairman of the Board. The chairman of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors and executive committee, shall set the schedule and agenda for board and executive committee meetings, shall make appointments to standing and special committees, and shall carry out such other duties and responsibilities as shall be assigned by the board of directors. The chairman shall have the authority to execute contracts and all other documents on behalf of the corporation.

4.5 Vice Chairman of the Board. The vice chairman of the board shall carry out the duties and responsibilities of the chairman of the board when the latter is absent or unavailable. The vice chairman shall assist the chairman as requested by the chairman, and shall also have the authority to execute contracts and all other documents on behalf of the corporation, in the stead of the chairman. The vice chairman shall also perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board of directors or the chairman, under whose supervision the vice chairman shall act.

4.6 Executive Director. The executive director, who shall also be a full-time employee of the corporation, shall be the chief executive officer and, subject to directives or restrictions of the board of directors, shall have general, day-to-day charge of the business affairs and property of the corporation and general supervision over its employees, agents and staff. The executive director shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of the chief executive officer of a corporation, and shall perform all duties incident to his or her office and shall see that all directives and resolutions of the board of directors are carried into effect. The executive director shall report directly to the chairman of the board and the board of directors, and, if so designated by the board, shall be a voting member of the board of directors. The executive director shall be an ex officio member of each standing committee and subcommittee of the board of directors.

4.7 Secretary. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the board of directors and record all votes and the proceedings of all meetings, including e-mail votes for director candidates (see Sec. 3.3 of these bylaws), in the corporate records. At meetings of the board, the secretarial duties to record all votes and proceedings, including minutes, may be delegated to another person. The secretary shall also perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board of directors or the chairman, under whose supervision the secretary shall act.

4.8 Treasurer. The treasurer, who shall also be the chairman of the finance committee, shall have the custody of the corporate funds and other valuable effects, shall be responsible for full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements of the corporation, and shall prepare the corporation's annual budget and a periodic reconciliation of the budget. The treasurer shall be responsible for disbursement of the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board of directors, and shall render to the chairman of the board, executive director, finance committee and board of directors, whenever requested, an account of all transactions as treasurer and the financial condition of the corporation. The treasurer shall recommend to the board of directors policies and procedures for accepting payments, making of deposits, processing invoices, and payment of expenses, with checks and balances designed to prevent risk of defalcations. The treasurer shall cause to be deposited all monies and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors.

4.9 Ex Officio Members of Board of Directors. All ex officio members of the board of directors shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the board of directors and to receive notices of said meetings, but shall not be entitled to vote on matters requiring the approval of the board of directors.

4.10 Subordinate Staff Members. The executive director may appoint such other paid staff approved by the board of directors, as the business of the corporation may require. The subordinate staff members shall have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in the bylaws or as the executive director may from time to time determine. As delegated by the executive director, the staff members shall have administrative decision-making authority within the areas of their directly-assigned functional responsibilities. They shall represent the corporation with respect to the development, coordination and interpretation of established corporate policies, operating procedures and standards of performance. The subordinate staff members may be removed by the executive director.

4.11 Removal or Resignation. Any officer, employee or staff member of the corporation may be removed, whether with or without cause, by action of the board of directors.

4.12 Authority to Execute Documents. Subject to the provisions of applicable law, these bylaws, and resolutions of the board of directors, any instrument in writing to be executed or entered into by the corporation shall be valid and binding on the corporation when signed by the chairman of the board or vice chairman and any one of the following: executive director, secretary or treasurer. Unless authorized by the board of directors by written resolution, no third party shall have the right to rely on the signature or signatures of any officer or agent other than as provided herein as binding on the corporation.

ARTICLE V
INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

5.1 Indemnification. To the fullest extent provided by applicable law and any provision of the corporations articles of incorporation or bylaws, the corporation shall hold harmless and indemnify each of its directors and officers ("indemnitee") against any and all liability and expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with any threatened or actual proceeding or legal action resulting from the indemnitee's service to the corporation or to another person or entity at the corporation's request.

5.2 Procedure. In order to qualify for indemnification, the indemnitee shall notify the board of directors promptly of the threat or commencement of any proceeding or legal action with respect to which the indemnitee intends to seek indemnification. The corporation shall be entitled to assume the indemnitee's defense with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnitee, unless the indemnitee provides the corporation with an opinion of counsel reasonably concluding that there may be a conflict of interest between the indemnitee and the corporation in the defense of the proceeding or legal action. If the corporation assumes the defense, the corporation shall not be liable to the indemnitee for legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnitee and not approved by the corporation.

5.3 Expense Advances. The corporation shall advance the indemnitee's expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred or to be incurred by the indemnitee in defending a proceeding or legal action upon receipt of notice and, if required by law, of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnitee to repay all amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined by a final judicial decision (after expiration or exhaustion of any appeal rights) that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses.

5.4 Settlement of Claims. The corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify the indemnitee for any amounts incurred in settlement if the settlement is made without the corporation's prior written consent. The corporation shall not enter into any settlement that would impose any penalty or limitation on the indemnitee without the indemnitee's prior written consent. Neither the corporation nor the indemnitee will unreasonably withhold consent to any proposed settlement.

5.5 Effect of Repeal. In order that the indemnitee may rely on the indemnification provided by this Article V no repeal or amendment of this article shall reduce the right of the indemnitee to payment of expenses or indemnification for acts of the indemnitee taken before the date of repeal or amendment.

ARTICLE VI
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The executive committee of the corporation shall consist of the officers of the corporation, the chairman of each standing committee, and the executive director, who shall be ex officio. The executive committee shall have the power to act on behalf of the board of directors on any and all matters subject to the board's powers and authority when, at the discretion of the chairman, action is required before a meeting of the board of directors can be duly held. Any action of the executive committee taken on the board's behalf may be ratified or overruled by the board at a duly scheduled meeting. The executive committee may meet at any time on twenty-four hours telephonic or other notice by the chairman of the board, and may meet telephonically or by written proxy. Executive committee votes may be taken by e-mail ballots, provided that a majority of all of the members of the executive committee must vote to approve a matter. Written minutes of all deliberations and actions of the executive committee shall be kept and filed with the corporation's records, and shall be presented to the board of directors at its next meeting following the executive committee meeting. A quorum for the executive committee to act is five members, and all actions other than votes by e-mail shall be by majority vote of those members actually present in person, by telephone or proxy. In addition to the duties and responsibilities enumerated above, the executive committee shall be responsible for the corporation's strategic plan, oversight of the Cancer Support Network, and planning the annual board retreat, and may appoint ad hoc committees to address specific functions.

ARTICLE VII
BOARD GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

The board governance committee shall be responsible for recruitment, nomination, orientation and training of members of the board of directors. The committee shall work closely with the board, the other standing committees and the officers to determine specific needs of the board. The committee shall meet periodically with the executive director of the corporation, and shall keep written minutes of its actions. The chairman of the board governance committee shall be a member of the executive committee. The committee shall report to the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII
MARKETING COMMITTEE

The marketing committee shall oversee the internal and external marketing and communications efforts of the corporation. The committee shall interface with the fund development committee and identify and oversee development of the necessary marketing and communications strategies to enhance awareness and visibility of the corporation. The committee shall meet periodically with the executive director of the corporation and shall keep written notes of its actions. The chairman of the marketing committee shall be a member of the executive committee. The committee shall report to the board of directors.

ARTICLE IX
FINANCE COMMITTEE

The finance committee shall oversee all financial activities of the corporation, including budgeting and budget reconciliation, receipts and disbursements, financial policies and procedures, financial projections, financial audits or reviews, financial reporting, preparation and filing of tax returns, investment policies, banking, capital expenditures, and the like. The finance committee shall meet periodically as required, and shall keep written minutes of its actions. The chairman of the finance committee shall also be the treasurer of the corporation, and a member of the executive committee. The finance committee shall report to the board of directors. The Investment Committee shall be a sub-committee of the Finance Committee and shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Investment Committee shall have the duties and responsibilities as set forth in the Investment Policies adopted by the corporation.

ARTICLE X
FUND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The fund development committee shall oversee and plan for the revenue needs of the corporation, both operating and capital, short and long term, and for raising the necessary revenue through annual giving, special events, development campaigns, grant writing, foundation and corporate support, board support, planned giving, and other forms of charitable giving. The committee shall work closely with the other standing committees to assess the short and long term revenue needs of the corporation, and shall cultivate relationships with ancillary and auxiliary groups that could support the corporation and its programs and services. The committee shall meet periodically with the executive director of the corporation, and shall keep written minutes of its actions. The chairman of the fund development committee shall be a member of the executive committee. The fund development committee shall report to the board of directors.

ARTICLE XI
PROGRAM AND SERVICES COMMITTEE

The program and services committee shall oversee all program and service activities of the corporation, including the scope and standards of such programs and services offered to the public. In addition, the committee shall assist staff with special projects, explore populations that may be underserved by the corporation, and advocate to the board of directors on issues involving allocation of services, staffing needs, participant solicitation, and the like. The committee shall meet periodically with the program director of the corporation, shall assess community needs, shall establish a system to track and evaluate the performance and effectiveness of all programs and services, and shall develop mechanisms to build participation in programs and services. The committee shall meet periodically as required, and shall keep written minutes of its actions. The chairman of the program and services committee shall be a member of the executive committee. The program and services committee shall report to the board of directors.

ARTICLE XII PROFESSIONAL ADVISORY BOARD

The board of directors may establish a professional advisory board whose members shall be appointed from time to time by the board of directors upon the recommendation of the program director. The professional advisory board shall be comprised of health care professionals whose backgrounds, skills and/or reputation may serve to assist in the advancement of the work of the corporation. The professional advisory board shall meet at least twice a year.

Professional advisory board members, individually and collectively, shall have no authority over the conduct of the board of directors, although their advice, counsel and support may be sought from time to time by the program director, the board of directors and the corporation. Professional advisory board members shall be informed of key events of the corporation and shall be kept apprised of major policy matters and activities of the corporation. Professional advisory board members shall serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

ARTICLE XIII HONORARY BOARD; ANCILLARY GROUPS

The board of directors may establish an honorary board and other ancillary groups consisting of any number of members determined by the board of directors, for the purpose of extending the visibility of The Wellness Community - Arizona to the larger cancer community. The board of directors shall determine the criteria for membership on the honorary board.

ARTICLE XV AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed at any time by a majority vote of the board of directors; provided that notice of the proposal to amend, alter or repeal these bylaws, or to adopt new bylaws, shall be included in the notice of the meeting of the board of directors at which such action is to be considered.

CHAIRMAN'S CERTIFICATE

The undersigned chairman of The Wellness Community - Arizona, an Arizona corporation, does hereby certify that the foregoing Amended and Restated Bylaws of the corporation were adopted by the board of directors at a duly scheduled meeting, with a quorum present, on the 23rd day of November, 2010.

Chairman of the Board
The Wellness Community - Arizona,
an Arizona corporation
